

Trinity

They are the embodiment, in the human spiritual sphere of this particular Aeon, of the cosmic absolutes of Nuit, Hadit, and Ra-Hoor-Khuit (Goddess, God, and their Holy Spirit of Lust & Love); this is, for one, why Qabalistically Ankh-af-na-Khonsu equals Ra-Hoor-Khuit, and why Ra-Hoor-Khuit equals Shaitan-Aiwass (by Gematria). Ra-Hoor-Khuit, or Aiwass, is really Baphomet, the two-in-one Androgyne (i.e. Nuit and Hadit, or Scarlet Woman and Beast) - He/She is the Force & Fire of their continual intercourse. Which is why again The Book of the Law says that Ra-Hoor-Khuit and Hoor-pa-Kraat (i.e. Hadit and Nuit, or Beast and Scarlet Woman again, for Ra-Hoor-Khuit is aggressive and Hoor-pa-Kraat feminine passive) is Heru-ra-ha, which is itself code again for Baphomet (go ahead, add them up! Baphomet = 80 = Heru-ra-ha), or Aiwass. We are ourselves extensions of this tri-Unity, but trapped in space-time (seemingly - but on a certain level of which we are consciously unaware most of the time, we are one with that triple Unity), and from the vantage of a particular point in the universe we appear to be evolving into it. From this limited vantage it is so; but really - as Einstein pointed out time is relative to a position and outside that position - which means at all positions simultaneously - this evolution is already accomplished thus Aiwass as a Perfect Mind truly exists now as well as yesterday and tomorrow. We should not allow our temporal perspective to fool us into (a) regarding that triunity as objective or (b) denying it.

You will know much much more in time. There is much to be accomplished first. But we are not proceeding step-by-step as it seems in the moment. Time does not unfold. We have to achieve the Crowleyan Wisdom through the Understanding, and by the Power, of Leah, in order to lose ourselves in the universal Love that is Aiwass.
